

Spring Skiing with Guaranteed Laughs Altitude Comedy Festival 2026 in Mayrhofen

From 30 March to 3 April 2026, the Mayrhofen-Hippach holiday region once again hosts the “Funniest Show on Snow”. The Altitude Comedy Festival returns to the Zillertal Valley, bringing top comedians from around the globe and rising stars from the English-speaking comedy scene to the mountains of Tyrol.

This multi-award-winning festival is one of Europe’s best-loved winter comedy events, combining first-class live stand-up with world-class alpine skiing. By day, guests carve their way down the perfectly groomed slopes of Ahorn and Penken. By night, the village centre turns into a comedy playground, with shows taking place across a variety of epic venues.

What makes Altitude so special is its famously relaxed atmosphere. Comedians and audiences don’t just cross paths on stage – they also bump into each other on the slopes, share chairlifts, and swap laughs over après-ski drinks. It’s this unique mix of mountain adventure and evening entertainment that has made the festival a firm favourite on the international events calendar.

Each night features a packed programme of shows – from après-ski comedy sets and headline gala performances to late-night stand-up sessions. Visitors can also look forward to extra festival fun, including podcasts, improv comedy, silent discos and the legendary “Clown Hill Race”.

Line-up

The 2026 edition once again brings an impressive mix of international comedy stars and exciting newcomers to Mayrhofen-Hippach. Confirmed acts include Al Murray, Paul Smith, Jason Byrne, Deirdre O’Kane, Emma Doran, Abandoman, Emmanuel Sonubi, Mark Nelson, Justin Moorhouse, Rob Rouse, Ryan Cullen, Glenn Wool, Gareth Waugh, Lori Smith, Diederik Zuurmond and Karl Spain. Festival co-founders Marcus Brigstocke and Andrew Maxwell will also be returning, continuing to shape the event they launched nearly two decades ago.

About the Altitude Comedy Festival

Since its launch in 2007, the Altitude Comedy Festival has grown into a highlight of the international events calendar, regularly attracting top comedians from around the world. The combination of high-quality stand-up, a laid-back festival vibe and the spectacular scenery of the Zillertal Alps creates an unforgettable experience for comedy fans and winter sports enthusiasts alike.

Further information and tickets

- Detailed information about the artists can be found at altitudefestival.com/line-up.
- Week passes are available online at mayrhofen.at/altitude.
- Press images are available for download in our Press Section.

Press Contact:

Mayrhofen-Hippach Tourist Board

Christina Wegscheider

+43 5285 6760 632

press@mayrhofen.at